The Council of Albuquerque Garden Clubs is a non-profit corporation that was formed in 1950 when existing garden and plant organizations joined forces to offer education and services beyond the resources of a single group. Out of this cooperation came The Albuquerque Garden Center. Built in 1975 with funds raised through the efforts of members, local businesses and the County of Bernalillo. The Center is located in the Los Altos Park on Lomas between Wyoming and Eubank. An expanded garden shop, office, storage and additional restrooms were added to the Garden Center in 1994. The Los Altos Gardens were added in 2004 and they include: A Xeriscape Garden, Children's Garden, Alpine Garden, Bonnie Lowenstein Garden, Iris & Rose Garden, Daylily Garden, Cactus & Succulent Garden, Native Plant Garden and Uptown Garden. Other major features include a Japanese pavilion, pond and patio. These gardens are maintained by volunteers from the various Garden and Plant Organizations.

Today, most garden and plant organizations as well as related groups in the area are members of Council. They work together to maintain the Center and provide learning opportunities to their members and the community at large.
